

On November 3, 2017, USA&M hosted a delegation of Law Professors from Kazakhstan, as well as representatives of a U.S. Department of State, who were participating in the State Department's International Visitor Leadership Program. Rob Litz of USA&M lead the discussion of U.S. laws related to arbitration and mediation and how USA&M provides alternative dispute resolution solutions to the legal, business and insurance community. The World Affairs Council of St. Louis coordinated the visit with the State Department. USA&M hosted a similar group of judges and lawyers from South and Central America in 2014.
