

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Robert D. Litz was named President of United States Arbitration & Mediation (USA&M) and serves on the Mediator and Senior Arbitrator panels. In his new role, Litz will lead the national and international arbitration and mediation services of USA&M from its St. Louis headquarters. USA&M, founded in 1985, is the largest provider of mediation and arbitration services in the Midwest.

Most recently, Litz served as USA&M Sr. Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. He also serves as an adjunct Professor of Law at Washington University.

Litz earned his bachelor's degree from Drake University (B.A. 1979) and his JD from University of Missouri – Kansas City School of Law (J.D. 1981).
