

USA&M Mediator Wins Illinois State Bar Association Medal of Merit

Russell K. Scott, a mediator at United States Arbitration & Mediation in St. Louis, Missouri, has received the 2018 Medal of Merit Award from the Illinois State Bar Association.

The ISBA honored Scott at its 142nd annual meeting on June 16. The award recognizes attorneys for exemplary achievement and continuous long-standing service to the legal profession and the community. It is awarded rarely, given only to those who have made “a significant contribution to the altruistic goals of the profession or the public.”

Russell K. Scott, an officer and leader in Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale’s office in Belleville, Illinois and is a member of Greensfelder’s litigation practice group, Scott defends claims including class actions, civil RICO suits and toxic and mass tort litigation. His work also has included product liability, industrial-accident cases, premises liability, construction, insurance coverage and legal and medical malpractice suits.

He is a former member of the ISBA Board of Governors and a former president of the St. Clair County Bar Association and the Illinois Bar Foundation.
