

LINDA L. HAHN

Education: USA&M Advanced Mediator Training 2002; Mediator Training University of Missouri School of Law – 2001; USA&M Mediator Training 2001; St. Louis University Law School, J.D. cum laude 1985; University of Missouri – B.A., magna cum laude 1978.

Accomplishments: Since 1985, Linda Hahn has concentrated her practice in civil litigation representing both plaintiffs and defendants. After clerking for the Eastern District of the Missouri Court of Appeals, she practiced with Korten Hof & Ely, Casey & Meyerkord and Hahn Enright & Hansen. Since 1992, her area of practice has been primarily in defense of personal injury litigation, general liability, automobile, wrongful death, premise liability, and products liability cases. She has been a lecturer for numerous CLEs on diverse topics ranging from taking and defending depositions, effective use of mediation, and use of technology in trial preparation and in the courtroom.

Affiliations: Member Missouri and Illinois Bar; President of the Lawyers Association of St Louis 2000-2001, executive member 1992-2002; Member of the Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis; Board of Directors, A Place to Turn To 2011 - ; Board of Directors, Parkway School Board 2001-2004; Board of Directors, Cooperating School District of St. Louis County 2003-2004; Adjunct Professor St. Louis University School of Law 1999-2003.