

CARDINA JOHNSON

Education: J.D. from St. Louis University School of Law with a certificate in employment law, 2002; B.A. in English from University of Missouri - St. Louis; Mediation training with University of Missouri - Columbia, 2021; USA&M Mediator Training, 2022

Accomplishments: Cardina Johnson serves as Associate General Counsel for Illinois Education Association (2012 - present). She also currently serves as the Professional Staff Grievance Committee Chair and the Chair of the Internal Disciplinary Hearing Board for the Illinois Education Association Staff Organization. Prior to that, she practiced law representing both defendant and plaintiff clients, first as a labor and employment attorney working for a small law firm, then as in-house counsel for a police department. Thereafter, she worked for a large law firm primarily practicing insurance defense. The Missouri Supreme Court appointed Cardina Johnson as a member of the Missouri Bar Office of Chief Disciplinary Counsel Committee to serve two, consecutive four- year terms from the years 2016 - 2023. She has also served as faculty for numerous Continuing Legal Education training programs and seminars for Bar Association Metropolitan St. Louis, Missouri Bar Plan, Illinois Education Association, National Staff Organization and U.S. Arbitration & Mediation.

Affiliations: Bar Association of Metropolitan St. Louis, Member of the Board of Directors, Chair of the Minorities in Legal Profession Committee and Co-Chair for Motion for Kids; Mound City Bar Association, Executive Committee Member; Association of Corporate Counsel; American Bar Association; Better Business Bureau, Arbitrator; Illinois Attorney Registration & Disciplinary Commission (Illinois Bar); United States District Court, Eastern District of Missouri; Member of the Board of Directors for Missouri Baptist Healthcare Foundation; Tutor with Mathews-Dickey Boys' & Girls' Club; Big Brothers Big Sisters, Volunteer; Member of Board of Directors, Cope24